

Mental Health and Wellbeing Supports: NHSGGC Mental Health Improvement Team

During the Coronavirus outbreak people may be feeling lonely and have experienced big changes to their normal routine. Many people will find these things difficult and will experience more stress at this time. Although this can be difficult, it's important for them to know that they are not alone and that these feelings and this outbreak will pass.

Distress and Suicidal Thoughts

Some people find that talking with friends and family about their feelings can be a real source of support for coping with distress or suicidal thoughts. It might be helpful for them to map their support network, and think about people they could call if their feeling suicidal. Other people may prefer to seek more professional support or call a helpline such as Breathing Space, Samaritans or Shout

- Breathing Space 0800 83 85 87
- Samaritans 116 123
- SHOUT Text SHOUT to 85258

For some people they may be finding it difficult to cope and may think of ending their life, if you are concerned about an individual's mental health and wellbeing and feel they may be in distress, their Doctor should be their first point of contact. If you feel the individual is in immediate danger please call 999 for assistance.

This resource provides a range of useful mental health and wellbeing helplines and supports that you can signpost people to during this time.

Supportive Trusted Adult

Talking to a supportive trusted adult is good for our mental health.

Here are some tips to help you be that adult:

Do

- Listen
- Ask direct questions
- Treat the person with dignity and respect
- Offer emotional support and understanding
- Encourage help seeking

Don't

- Judge
- Overreact
- Dismiss their concerns
- Rush to solve the problem
- Tell them they are wrong to feel a certain way
